YOU MUST ATTEND A COURSE ON HOW CONFLICT AFFECTS CHILDREN

In every case involving children in Harris, Montgomery and some surrounding counties both parents are required to attend an approved course on how parental conflict affects children. Parties are not required to attend the course together. If you do not attend the course your case can be dismissed. Attached to this notice is a list of approved courses. Please take one as soon as possible. Cases have been dismissed, and settlements have unraveled, because one parent failed to take the required course. You should not put it off. It is easy to forget about the course until you arrive at court for trial or to submit an agreement. If that happens, your case can be dismissed or, at a minimum, you will have to return to court weeks later after taking the required course.

OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER REGARDING PERSONS SEEKING CONSERVATORSHIP
IN FAMILY LAW CASES

(This Order supersedes and replaces the Order Regarding Persons Seeking Conservatorship in Family Law Cases signed on May 19, 1998.)

Pursuant to the inherent powers of the court and the powers granted by the Texas Family Code, the Court finds that the best interest of the child(ren) of parties involved in original suits affecting the parent-child relationship or in suits to modify existing orders of conservatorship, possession or support, requires that any person seeking to become a managing conservator (temporary or permanent) or seeking access to a child, successfully complete a parent education and family stabilization course pursuant to §105.009 of the Texas Family Code.

This order applies to all persons seeking access to a child or seeking to become a managing or possessory conservator (whether sole, joint, temporary or permanent) in all original actions affecting the parent-child relationship or actions to modify existing orders brought under the Texas Family Code except for actions brought solely for the purpose of enforcing existing court-ordered obligations or actions brought by a governmental agency.

Any person filing a waiver of citation or service shall provide a copy of this order to the person signing the waiver and shall execute and file a statement confirming compliance with this order.

All parties seeking access to a child or seeking to become a managing or possessory conservator (whether sole, joint, temporary or permanent) shall successfully complete a parent education and family stabilization course which complies with §105.009(i) of the Texas Family Code and timely file an original certificate of completion of such course with the court. The parent education and family stabilization course shall be successfully completed by the petitioner or movant within 31 days of filing of the original petition or motion, and by the respondent within 31 days of respondent's first appearance or the filing of an answer or waiver by the respondent, unless the court in which the applicable litigation is pending orders otherwise.

A party's failure to successfully complete a parent education and family stabilization course pursuant to this order may result in the court not appointing the party as a managing conservator or in the court not granting specified periods of possession or access. Additionally, a judge may take appropriate action, including but not limited to holding the party in contempt of court, striking pleadings, or invoking any sanction provided by Rule 215 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The parent education and family stabilization course required by this order shall comply with and meet all of the requirements of §105.009 of the Texas Family Code. Individual courts may require that parties must attend such course "in person." Parties are, therefore, required to contact the court in which the applicable litigation is pending to
